OGDENSBURG JOURNAL, WED., FEB. 6, 1963 Broadcasts At Clarkson News Room Potsdam — The Inter Colson College of Technology started broadcasts from its! new News Room in Lewis House at 6:00 p.m., Sunday, 기Feb. 3. The new studio, built by the college and equipped and operated by the Inter College Radio Network, has effective sound proofing as well as viewing facilities for visitors. During each evening, a total of s approximately one hour of r news broadcasts is distributed through radio lines to WNTC

Leon Smith, ICRN news dio casts. It also gives students an lege Radio Network at Clark-news direct off the wires of s|the United Press Internation--| al." s The Inter College Radio Netd work has invited students, faculty and townspeople to visit the news room on the second e floor of Lewis House where - they can read the latest news, - weather, and ski reports as of the network. d rector, said today, "This news s facility in Lewis House proy vides for better news broad-dopportunity to read the latest n they are posted hourly on a r four foot by eight foot glass window.

6 aland WCCT, member stations of כ